

NOTICE

The following information/position is being posted in connection with the filing of the permanent Application for Permanent Employment Certification. (ETA Form 9089).

The Division of Epidemiology at the University of Utah intends to permanently employ a foreign national in the job opportunity of Senior IT Project Manager at their Salt Lake City location, 500 Foothill Drive, Bldg #2, Room 1A18, Salt Lake City 84148. Applicants must have at least a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science, Information Systems or related field; and at least 48 months experience as a Technical Manager/Project Manager, including 24 months of experience with the following: technical experience with hardware and software, client and server architectures, database and system design, intranet and extranet, and web application programming. The Senior IT Project Manager in the Division of Epidemiology will be responsible of Software Development Life Cycle (SDLC) methodology and Agile which will include scope, goals and deliverables; responsible for specific IT project requirements and will collaborate on functional technical specifications; will assist with projects that may include development of prototypes and structures that demonstrate advanced clinical computing concepts; will work on collaborative projects with other centers and institutes at the University of Utah and partner institutions; will manage and negotiate Federal contracts involving IT functions, regulatory and other operational tasks as needed. The salary for this position will equal or exceed the wage of $81,500.

Advertisements will be placed in 10/11/2020, 10/14/2020, and 10/18/2020 issues of the Salt Lake Tribune and the Deseret News. Qualified candidates must submit a CV to: Della Richter, Della Richter, 500 Foothill Drive, Bldg#2, Room 1A43, Salt Lake City 84148.

Any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on the application to the Certifying Officer of the U.S. Department of Labor:

United States Department of Labor
Employment and Training Administration
Atlanta National Processing Center
Harris Tower, 233 Peachtree Street, NE, Suite 410
Atlanta, GA 30303

EMPLOYER ATTESTATIONS:

There is no bargaining representative for the job opportunity with the employer in the location(s) of intended employment.

The notice was posted for a period of ten (10) consecutive business days.*

*The notice remained clearly visible and unobstructed during the entire period in the location where U.S. workers could readily read it.

Office of General Counsel
201 South Presidents Cir Rm 309
Salt Lake City, Utah 84112-9018
(801) 585-7002
FAX (801) 585-7007